

Program Description

WHAT IS IT?

CUPE is launching a program to:

- Uplift the voices of parents, guardians, and caregivers
- Boost community involvement within Charlottesville education to help shape the policies and actions of schools and local government.

COMMUNITY

ENGAGERS

WHO IS INVOLVED?

CUPE invites parents, guardians, and anyone dedicated to improving public education in Charlottesville.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend a CUPE-led training session
- Host community engager sessions within the school
- Participate in feedback and reflection sessions to improve the program

BENEFITS

- Empowerment of marginalized families
- Enhanced communication and collaboration
- Elevating community voices
- Meaningful dialogue and feedback
- Community building and networking
- Training and skill development

INTERESTED?

For more information on how to get involved, visit the "Community Engagers" page on our website: charlottesvilleunited.org